

Stefan Shoots, Scores At Boulder Pointe

Former Detroit Red Wings goaltender wins by two shots

June 7, 2010

Oxford, Michigan – Greg Stefan, former goaltender for the Detroit Red Wings, scored his first victory on the Michigan Player's Tour on June 7th by posting a 1 over par 73 in the Boulder Pointe Open. The event was played at the 7,424 yard par 72 Boulder Pointe G.C. in Oxford.

Greg Stefan

Second place went to Michael Murray of White Lake, who posted a 75. It was Murray's first event on the Tour, who recently qualified for the Michigan Open with a 74 at Flint Golf Club.

Boulder Pointe G.C. is a strong test of golf with a numerous par 4s measuring over 450 yards and plenty of water. But after heavy rains and severe storms that ravaged the area the on Saturday, it played extremely long, with tee shots bouncing backwards after landing in the fairway, often adding 30 yards or more to approach shots.

Stefan, who is currently a scout for the National Hockey League's Carolina Hurricanes, collected $400.00 for the win.
