

Lee Wins Tour Opener

Posts 1 under par 70 on Coyote Preserve G.C.

June 1, 2010

Fenton, Michigan – It was a perfect day for scoring – sunny skies, very little wind, and a course softened by overnight rains.

And taking advantage of these conditions was Matt Lee of Farmington, who birdied his first two holes en route to a 3 under par 33 on the front nine, and an overall score of 70 to win The Coyote Preserve Open by four shots on June 1st.

Second place money was split by six time Tour winner Paul Wilson of Grayling, and Robert Shaw of Manchester. Both shot 74.

The event was played on the immaculate Coyote Preserve G.C., a spectacular Arnold

Palmer Signature course just a few miles south of Fenton. The course played at 6,912 yards to a par of 71.

The second event of the 2010 schedule is The Boulder Pointe Open, to be played June 7th at the lengthy 7,424 yard Boulder Pointe G.C. in Oxford.
