

Hooks Wins Coyote Preserve Open

Captures First 36 Hole Event On Tour In 11 Years

June 24, 2018

Fenton, Michigan – Joe Hooks of Farmington Hills made it two in a row, and with a final round 67, the only score under par in the entire tournament, won the 2018 Coyote Preserve Open by 7 shots.

Second place went to Blaze Hogan of Big Rapids, who posted 74 - 76.

Although there was a small group of only 12 players in the field, players contemplating joining the Tour should note the significantly larger paychecks available in 36 hole events. Hooks picked up $800.00 for the win, an amount that could have easily topped $1,000.00 with only a handful more players.

The Tour will now seek to add a couple more 36 hole events this season. Should these events be scheduled, they will be announced here on the Tour web site and by email.

Coyote Preserve G.C. is an Arnold Palmer Signature Golf Course, and is one of the most beautiful and challenging public courses in Southeast Michigan. It plays to a yardage of 6,912 yards, and a par of 71.
