

Lenahan And Regier Split Jackson Open Title

Both Players Post 2 Under Par 70s

August 18, 2018

Jackson, Michigan – On a partly cloudy and humid day, former Michigan native Ryan Lenahan of Charlotte, NC and Justin Regier of Chicago each posted solid rounds of two under par 70, a score leaving them tied for the lead in the 2018 Jackson Open.

But due to personal obligations, both players decided to split the title instead of heading back to the first tee for a playoff.

Lenahan is a multiple winner on the MPT, having won five events in 2011 and 2012. This was Regier's first event on Tour. Both players, along with Nick Contini of Granville, OH, are scheduled to compete in the First Stage of PGA Tour Qualifying School in September.

The Grande is one of Southeast Michigan's most beautiful and challenging public courses, and is noted for its large undulating greens and unique bunkering, which allow for numerous pin positions. Over the years, the course has shown a remarkable resistance to low scoring, a trend which continued in this event.
